Residual sugar: 2,3 g/l

Format: 750 ml

Wine description: Indigenous grape from the Eastern side of the Appennino mountain range (Marche and Abruzzo, Central Italy). The bunch is small and elongated, with round, small berries, golden-yellow coloured when ripe. This Pecorino has a complex nose of citrus, yellow peach, hints of straw and white beer. Rich on the palate, it has good body and structure with a long finish. Good to drink as a young wine, but also suitable for a medium ageing in bottle, to better appreciate its mineral compounds. Pecorino complements seafood, pasta with light dressings, fried food, poultry. Delightful also as a sipping wine. Serve chilled.
